Sermonette

By Retired Minister Darel Boston,
Norton Christian Church
OVERNEWSED - UNDERINFORMED

We live in a wonderful – dreadful time: news galore available in all sorts of media ... wonderful! But so often we feel overwhelmed, “knowing” so much that’s going on all over the world, yet NOT knowing what it means or what to do about it. Isaiah records God’s judgment on numerous nations and promises there will be a Messiah coming who will establish an everlasting kingdom. Hundreds of years later, Jesus was born in Bethlehem and proved by his life, ministry, death, and resurrection that He is that Messiah! He is the Good News! Through faith in Him a person can come to Father/God and experience forgiveness and abundant life! That news can make our daily news have meaning. Promise and hope can be experienced through all the uncertainty of our present. Jesus taught foundational truths that allow people to live in peace with one another while trusting and praising God. “Sermon on the Mount” is the title given to Matthew 5-7. It begins, “Blessed are the poor in spirit...” It’s a great sermon to study if you have become overwhelmed with the daily news. It lays out the way to love and live, whatever the present government or war/peace status. It is the King telling his subjects how to live in His kingdom. IF we live like that, we are a part of the answer our world desperately needs. IF we neglect or refuse it, we are part of the problem that can and will destroy us. Vote for peace, in America and in our world, by giving your devotion to Jesus and His Kingdom. “Forsake not the assembling of yourselves together” is a command from scripture to keep going to church. Each of us needs the witness of the others, and our world needs the light we become in Him. For the Prince of Peace,
