Sentinel Submission Policy

The Stockton Sentinel strives to provide its readers with a fair and accurate recording of our local community, government and school activities, as well as promote businesses, organizations and events through advertising.

As per our policy, we consider "news" as that which has already happened, and "advertising" as that which is used to draw attention to an event, product or service to promote sales or attendance, regardless of whether or not there is a charge. News is printed in the newspaper for free, while there is a charge for advertising.

We encourage the submission of news, whether it be a birth, engagement, wedding, obituary, church or club article, etc., and there is no charge. However, we reserve the right to edit these items for length (as space allows), grammar, punctuation and spelling. Rewriting may be necessary to make the items conform to the Sentinel's adopted style.

We will do our best to include all the local and area news submitted each week, but due to space limitations, we cannot guarantee if or when these items will be published.

Obituaries which do not follow our basic format, thank yous, card showers, open houses, poems, tributes, etc. will be charged. Photos that accompany the obituaries, card showers, tributes, will run for free. Any item requested to run twice will be charged for the second run.

News releases promoting something that hasn't happened will require a paid ad. The article and ad must run in the same issue.

OUR POLICY
ON LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

- All letters may be edited for length and clarity. Letters must be signed and include an address and daytime telephone number for verification. The writer's name may be withheld from publication, but will be given out if requested by a reader.
- All letters received through email or by FAX must be verified by your phone call before publication.
- Political endorsements must be paid for.
- We reserve the right not to print a letter.

Letters will reach us at Stockton Sentinel, 414 Main Street, Stockton, KS 67669, or email them to stocktonsentinel@gmail.com

Virgi's Views On
This 'n That

By Virgi Laska

A New Chapter Begins

By Catherine Pulsifier

Graduation day is finally here,
A time to smile, a time to cheer.
The books are closed, the tests are done,
A journey ends, another one's begun.

This chapter now comes to a close,
What's ahead? Nobody knows.
But dreams are waiting, hopes are high,
So spread your wings, prepare to fly.

The road ahead may twist and bend,
But strength and faith will help you mend.
Each step you take, each choice you make,
Will shape the path that you will take.

Mistakes may come, and that's okay,
They help to guide you on your way.
Keep your heart both kind and true,
And blessings will come back to you.

So that this moment, feel the pride,
With courage let your fears subside.
This is a new chapter, fresh and bright—
Walk in it boldly, be a shining light.
