

TOWN HALL

Leavenworth Public Works Director Brian Faust, right, speaks with people attending a town hall meeting Wednesday at the Riverfront Community Center. City officials hosted the event to provide information about options for the future of the city’s trash collection service. People still have time to take an online survey about the options. A link to the survey can be found on the city’s website, leavenworthks.gov. The survey will remain open until Monday. John Richmeier
