PUBLIC NOTICE

If it's not in the newspaper, how will you know?

your community — local government officials are required to publish in the local newspaper.

Your local newspaper fulfills an essential role in serving your right to know. After all, it shouldn't be your responsibility to know how to look ... where to look ... when to look ... and even what to look for in order to be informed about public information. It is the government's responsibility to notify you of public information, and your local newspaper is the most accessible place to find it.

Mrs. Joy Force has been appointed Postmaster General at Wheaton, effective May 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kitts, Topeka, were Thursday afternoon visitors of Mrs. Gladys Rob-publication, Cooking Basics: Making a Meal from What's on Hand, which is available online for free from the K-State Research and Extension bookstore.

"We teach this idea of making a meal from what's already in your kitchen in our Kansas SNAP-Ed cooking classes for audiences who currently use SNAP food assistance benefits, or are SNAP eligible," Rundus said.

She likens a recipe to a road map in which there are alternate roads to arrive at a specific destination.

Similarly, "when you don't have the exact ingredients listed in a specific recipe, there are alternate options to complete that recipe."
