LOCAL ART

A mural of a Kansas prairie fire, located on the north side of the Charlson and Wilson Bonded Abstracters building on Fourth Street in downtown Manhattan, was painted in April 2022 by Louis Copt of Lawrence, and Kansas City artists Isaac Tapia and Rodrigo Alvarez. Copt, 76, a well-known artist, died of cancer on May 8.

NOT A PROBLEM

The 400 block of Houston Street in downtown Manhattan reopened to through traffic earlier this week. Parallel parking, however, remains closed temporarily as workers are completing final touches including landscaping, signage and curb painting in no-parking zones.
