It was a beautiful day in the neighborhood and the Wamego Red Raider golf team took advantage of it Tuesday afternoon to start the season by winning the home invitational.

The 18-hole tournament was played at the Wamego Country Club.

The Raiders won it in style, with a 20 stroke lead over their nearest competitor, Circle.

Additionally Regan Kueker took the individual gold, shooting a 71, followed closely by his teammate Wyatt Burch, who ended the tournament with 77 strokes.

In addition to Wamego, area schools competing included Rock Creek, St. Marys and Rossville.
