

Movie showing features local actors

This Saturday, there will be a showing of the movie “Sod and Stubble” at the Kansas Oil Museum. Doors will open for general admission ticket holders at 6:45 p.m., and the movie will begin at 7 p.m. Concessions will be available. Tickets are $8 each, and available online at www.kansasoilmuseum.org/ store or by calling 316-321-9333. Tickets also are available at the museum. The cast includes several people from south-central Kansas, including Cheney resident Randy Edens. “Sod and Stubble” is written and directed by Ken Spurgeon of Wichita, who also is an assistant professor of history at Friends University.

EHS grad named Maize Eagles basketball coach

Former Eisenhower High School basketball player is coming back to the Wichita area to coach a rival high school. Zach Bush has been named as the new head coach of the Maize Eagles boys basketball team. Following graduation from EHS, Bush played collegiately at Wichita State University. Bush has been an assistant coach at an Omaha-area high school, and continues to be the head coach for the Wichita AfterShocks. The AfterShocks features former WSU players who take part in the The Basketball Tournament each summer. Bush replaces Chris Grill, who retired as the Eagles head coach. Grill also previously coached the Garden Plain Owls boys basketball team.

EHS students earn National Merit scholarships

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC) has released the names of the first group of winners in the 70th annual National Merit Scholarship Program. Approximately 830 distinguished high school seniors have won corporate-sponsored National Merit Scholarship awards, financed by about 124 corporations, company foundations, and other business organizations. Also included in this category are awards supported by several foundations and individual donors who have established endowments with NMSC. Chelsey G. Kallman, an Eisenhower High School student, won the National Merit Textron Scholarship. Luke Ternes, also a student at Eisenhower, won the National Merit Ascension Scholarship.

Donaldson featured in BCC showcase

VIOLA – The Butler Community College Art, Digital Media and Communications (ADMC) department presented its spring dance and art showcase on May 6. A collaboration between the dance, art, vocal music and theatre programs, the theme for the evening was “Dance and Art IS Life!” Ballet, tap, modern, jazz and hip hop dance ensembles were featured, along with wearable art created and modeled by Butler students.
