

MADISON LOSES TO BURLINGAME AND MARAIS DES CYGNES VALLEY IN FINAL LYON COUNTY LEAGUE REGULAR SEASON MATCH

By TREY DONOVAN
sports@emporia.com

The final regular season matches in the Lyon County League finished on Tuesday evening as teams figured out their seeding for the Lyon County League Tournament on Oct. 10.

The Madison Bulldogs faced Burlingame to close the LCL regular season looking to gain momentum for the tournament. It would be a competitive match from the Bulldogs, but Burlingame had the slight edge when it came down to clutch time.

The first set saw both teams trade points, until Burlingame got a final push to close the set 25-22. Madison didn't recover in time for the second set as they fell 25-16. In the third and final set, it was very similar to the first set where the teams traded points throughout. Madison made it closer than the first set, but Burlingame closed it out 27-25 to sweep the Bulldogs.

Against MdCV, they got dominated by the top team in the LCL as they lost both sets 25-10 and 25-12.

With the loss, the Bulldogs move to 6-19 on the season and finish LCL play 1-6. They will head into the LCL Tournament as the seventh seeded team.
