FOR RENT

Are You Hungry?

Do you eat alone at home for your lunch? Did you know you could be sharing a full course meal with others in your community? Wabaunsee County has three dining centers that offer meals for all ages of people. These meals are served at Alta Vista, Eskridge, and Maple Hill Senior Centers. If you are unable to attend a site, a meal can be delivered to you through the Friendship Meals program. Volunteers in the community deliver the meals throughout the week in the following locations: Alma, Alta Vista, Eskridge, Harveyville, Maple Hill.

Anyone of any age can eat a full meal for $7.00. If you or your spouse is 60 years or older, you are eligible to have a meal with a suggested voluntary contribution for $4.00 or whatever you can comfortably afford, as long as you fill out a required form. Volunteers are always needed, so if you would be interested in helping with meals, please contact your local site.

Alma Friendship Meals: Contact Elaine Deiter, 785-221-9353

Alta Vista Senior Center: Call 785-499-5350

Eskridge Senior Center: Call 785-449-2858

Harveyville Friendship Meals: Contact Barb Cripps, 785-220-1261

Maple Hill Senior Center: Call 785-256-4366

Besides noon meals, the different communities offer activities throughout the month that include: playing cards, bingo, dominos, potlucks, breakfasts, or even eating pie.

The next time you plan to eat alone, remember that you can go eat and socialize with others for a very reasonable price.

For more information, contact your local dining center or the Extension Office at 785-765-3821 or email Bernadette Trieb, btrieb@ksu.edu.

THANK YOU

THANK YOU! Saturday evening, I got the surprise of my life. My sister, my niece and my grandkids gave me a great birthday party. I don't remember being that surprised before. Thanks to all of my family and so many friends for being there.
