The following weekend, I had a conference in Dallas. There was a group of us who were supposed to fly out to the conference in Salina, but all the planes were grounded, so we drove. The hotel we stayed in had many people from

The commissioners voted to accept the low bid from B&B Redimix to replace some concrete curbs and gutters in town by the Stockton Public Library, the Stockton Pharmacy, the Stockton Senior Center, and a drainage ditch. Hilbrink began her report by saying the City was running early trash routes because of the heat. The city-wide cleanup is set for September 21st through September 25th. The new laundromat has opened. The Rooks County tax sale was set for later in the week. The City is flushing fire hydrants. KDHE denied the permit because the tank is too big. They are working on other options. The Public Hearing for the water grant is set for October 6th. The City Office will be closed on all over the world stranded there. There was so much patriotism and unity in our country at that time! I remember seeing American flags flying everywhere, including on cars! I remember hearing Toby Keith's song "Courtesy of the Red, White, and Blue" for the first time and having tears streaming down my face.

My recollection resembles Sandy's memory. I worked at the First National Bank in Phillipsburg. I was getting ready to leave for work when I heard Marty Bennett on KQMA radio station that something terrible was happening. I had to be out the door to work, so I was Labor Day. The crew was working on the drainage ditch by the Solomon Valley Manor. During the Commissioner Reports, Deb Miller thanked Hilbrink for all her work on the E-Bike Ordinance for the City. Bob Becker asked that the alley behind his house be checked to see who is responsible, as the trees and weeds are over-taking the area. Becker also spoke with electric department supervisor Cory Carlson about electric power to the Manor. The City is working on having the facility on two different grids in case of a power outage. Carlson said the department will do it when they install the transformer for the new day care.

Jesica Kerr noted some properties that need to be cleaned up before the meeting was adjourned. Those present for the meeting were commissioners Bob Becker, Jesica Kerr, Deb Miller, Adam Bryant (Zoom), city clerk Kayla Hilbrink, and assistant city clerk Taylor Ghumm.

unsure what was going on in the world. When I went to lunch at home, I was privy to the information and sights airing on the TV. It was like a train wreck. I wanted to look away, but I couldn't! I likened it to an extremely realistic version of Jenga, with both towers crumbling to the ground like dirt. The office workers on the top floors (where the fires were emanating) were jumping to their deaths. They had two choices—die or die! In the other events, the people were caught by surprise and had no time to react. Whereas the people jumping had to make a conscious life-or-death decision. I can only imagine their fear! I felt so... (gosh, what are the words?) so blown away! It was such an apocalyptic scene that I wondered if it was the end of the world! Well, this Friday, September 11th, marks the 25th anniversary of that life-changing day. Please take time to send up a prayer for those lives lost and the families remaining, and a prayer of thanksgiving for the EMTs, police, firemen and women, and hospital staff who saved so many lives. They were ordinary people who became heroes!
