the purchaser begins the process of securing legal possession and clear title through the courts. The periodic tax foreclosure sale serves as a key tool for local governments to recover unpaid tax revenue while returning long-delinquent properties to productive use. A full list of properties scheduled for sale is available through online public notices at kansaspublishing.com.

standing taxes, penalties and interest. Property owners still have an opportunity to avoid losing their property. Taxes, interest and associated costs can be paid in full at any time prior to the sale, which removes the parcel from the auction list. In many years, officials report, several properties are redeemed before auction day. Once a property is sold, however, the previous owner generally loses all ownership rights, and tional interest and court costs accrued since the filing of the case. The properties will be sold as-is and without appraisal, with winning bidders required to pay by cash or check at the time of sale. State law also prohibits individuals who owe delinquent taxes in Anderson County from participating as bidders. Proceeds from the auction are distributed first to cover court and sale costs, with the remaining funds applied toward the out-

are able to spend more time with each student who may require additional help, these kids will be lost in larger classrooms, and will fall through the educational cracks. Be on the Outlook for a petition to save Greeley Grade, and I ask everyone to make the effort and sign the petition to keep Greeley Grade, and the Community of Greeley alive. Do it for the kids!

hired the Superintendent, but as a community we have the ability to overturn that decision. I do not have children of school age in the district, but I feel very strongly about the value in keeping Greeley Grade open. The students that are enrolled at Greeley Grade get a much better education then they may get in G.E.S or Westphalia. Due to the smaller class sizes, and the Specialized Para's who are trained to work with children with Special needs. The Teachers and Para's the four votes he needed to pass the measure before the first meeting on January 8th, and the second meeting was just theatrics. It was meant to show the Community how tough of a decision it was to close Greeley Grade, when in reality it was already a forgone conclusion, it was going to be closed! Now we come to a show-down, as a community we all need to come together for the children in the District, we elected these Board Members, and they
