Bridge deck repair continues on I-35 west of Lebo

LEBO — The Kansas Department of Transportation is continuing the bridge deck repair project on northbound I-35 two miles west of Lebo in Coffey County.

As of Monday, Sept. 21, the driving lane is closed for repairs, and motorists will be guided to the passing lane by cones and signs. Work includes removing and replacing concrete on the bridge deck. KDOT repaired the passing lane last week.

The bridge, which carries I-35 traffic over Dobbin Road, is expected to re-open to two lanes of traffic by Oct. 1, conditions permitting.

KDOT urges motorists to stay alert, follow posted signs and refrain from hand-held mobile device use in all active work zones. For current road conditions, visit ksdot.gov/projects/southeast-kansas-projects.
